Barbershop style singing comes to the Southern Cultural Heritage Center

Featuring the Brick Street Barbershop Quartet

VICKSBURG, MS (January 9, 2009): The Southern Cultural Heritage Foundation proudly welcomes The Brick Street Barbershop Quartet on Thursday, March 12th at 7:00pm. This entertaining evening will be fun for the entire family. Admission is $5/SCHF members, $7/non-members and $3 children (18 and under). Tickets will be sold in advance and the day of the show.

The Brick Street Barber Shop Quartet has been performing since November, 1996. With nearly 50 years of combined barbershop experience, Brick Street provides quality entertainment guaranteed to make you laugh - and make you groan. The group entertains corporate events and has traveled far and wide to spread this cultural old fashioned sound. The quartet has performed shows throughout the Southeastern United States.

The Quartet consists of Tenor, Jeff Henegar, an Associate Professor of Pathology at the University of Mississippi Medical Center; Lead, Greg Gibson, Public Relations / Multimedia Coordinator for the Mississippi Farm Bureau Federation; Bass, Brad Feaster, Internal Auditor for Mississippi's Public Employees Retirement System; Baritone, Bill Bacon, Music Minister for First Baptist Church in Clinton since 1976.

For more information or to purchase tickets, please call the SCHF office at 601-631-2997 or email info@southernculture.org.
