PRESS RELEASE
NOVEMBER 3, 2009

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Event Name: 2-Day Drawing Basics Workshop

Instructor: Jeanie Nicolson
Date: Tuesdays, January 12 and 19, 2010
Time: 5:30pm-7:30pm
Admission: $50 SCHF Members or $60 Non-members

Description:

This introductory course teaches basic drawing tenets including value, line, positive and negative space, perspective and proportion via the elements of design. A variety of subject matter will be explored using pencil and charcoal. The cost for the workshop is $50 SCHF Members and $60 non-members and all supplies are included.

Jeanie Nicolson is lifelong native of Vicksburg, Mississippi. She received a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree (BFA) in commercial design from Delta State University. She started her career as an Illustrator for the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers. She has worked as a layout artist for various print and advertising companies. She has also worked and traveled extensively throughout Europe (including England, Scotland, France, Spain and Italy). She believes that drawing is the foundation of all fine art and design. To understand the importance of line and shape, ensures the artists work will be strong and enjoy movement and to understand light and shade, ensures the artists work will have great depth and position. To view Jeanie's designs, visit www.jeanienicolson.com.

Space is limited and reservations are required. For more information, contact 601.631.2997 or email info@southernculture.org.
